2023 CEC General Assembly Stewards Programme

Esteemed Church leaders,
Dear Sisters and Brothers in Christ,

The General Assembly of the Conference of European Churches could not take place without the essential practical and spiritual presence of assembly stewards. Furthermore, during the history of CEC, stewards have developed from assisting in a General Assembly to being member in a decision-making body or thematic group of the organisation.

For the General Assembly in Tallinn next year, we are looking for stewards in the following areas of work at the General Assembly:

- Assisting in the Assembly office (reception, information desk, administrative assistance, personal assistance)
- Plenary hall (preparing the hall and group rooms for sessions, welcoming delegates, distributing materials and interpretation equipment)
- Communication and press (assisting journalists, distributing documents)
- Worship (assisting the worship Committee in preparing worship sessions and distributing materials)

I warmly invite all Member Churches to share our call for stewards and support their individual application in writing, which forms an essential part of the selection process. You will find more information in the enclosed flyer.

Stewards can apply using this link. The deadline for applications is 20 January 2023. The Assembly office is available to answer all questions at 2023assembly@cec-kek.be

In Christ,

Dr Jørgen Skov Sørensen
